

Philadelphia, March 3. 1746-7.
To be Sold,
A Plantation joining to John Brown's plantation, in Maxfield, Bucks county, containing 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and orchard, and some meadow cleared, a very good handy spring, near 70 acres cleared, and the whole choice good land for wheat, except meadow ground. Any person inclining to buy the said land, may repair to Richard Houghs, near Thomas Yardley's, and know the terms. It lieth about five miles distant from Trenton. ⊕

john Browns land sold

Clipped By:
chanville41
May 18, 2025